Feminist performance artist/curator Gretta Sarfaty Marchant has bought a two-bedroom, two-bathroom 1,157-square-foot corner condo for $1.85 million at the Edge's South Tower in Williamsburg.

The apartment faces the water and is a floor above the two-bedroom, two-bathroom unit she currently lives in, which she bought in 2011.

Her new acquisition comes with a chef's kitchen, balcony and building amenities like an indoor pool, gym, basketball court, screening room, lounge, game room, children's playroom and terraces. Her broker was Douglas Elliman's Ralph Modica.
